Volunteer of the Year

Alissa Smith, Blue Line Rental was named Volunteer of the Year. Alissa has served PEP as an integral part of our volunteer force for more than three years. She is an asset to both the Reverse Trade Show Committee and the Golf Committee. Alissa brings creativity, unflagging energy and a smile to every event. Not only does she help plan and coordinate our key fundraisers, she is great at recruiting members and supporters. We value and appreciate her time, effort and service.

Partners for Environmental Progress (PEP) is a coalition of business and education leaders from more than 200 area companies who share the vision of applying science-based environmental best practices to business and community issues.
